RICHARD ROYER, AHC/EHC | SPECIFICATION WRITER

Rick started in a small door hardware distributor at 16 checking in material and opening boxes to see what an exit device, coordinator, and dustproof strike really looked like. He started a new Canton, OH branch for Cleveland Vicon in 1994 leading that team while selling and managing projects until 2018. A move to Tennessee saw nearly four years of remote work while still managing projects and serving as the lead designer for access control systems.
